

FSU UNITED WAY EMPLOYEE CAMPAIGN

MC: _____

SMALL CHANGE. BIG DIFFERENCE.

You'd like to help people in need, but the budget is tight. How much can your gift really do?

$5 per check Provides educational materials, books, and snacks for children enrolled in after school programs with academic enrichment activities.

$15 per check Funds 120 meals per month for children and families struggling with food insecurity.

$60 per check Provides one month of rental assistance to help a community member avoid eviction.

$10 per check Provides weekly take home books and materials for a student struggling in reading or math.

$30 per check Ensures that one month of high-quality professional childcare is available for children whose parents are enrolled in education or work training programs or who are actively seeking employment.

$110 per check Provides a year of shelter & services for a woman and her children in transitional housing.

Based on annual gift spread over 26 pay periods

DID YOU KNOW?

When you invest directly in the United Way of the Big Bend, you get the added benefit of a trained team and community leaders that monitor the effectiveness of the programs where your gift is invested.

LEADERSHIP GIVING

Leadership Society ($1,000-$4,999)

Community Society ($5,000-$9,999)

This society enables UWBB to recognize donors who are willing to move to a major-gift level and make extraordinarily generous contributions to their community.

Tocqueville Society ($10,000 or more)

A national society established to recognize the understanding, commitment and support of United Way's most generous and community-minded investors. This is UWBB's most prestigious group of local philanthropists.

Please return completed forms to Max Dou (mdou@fsu.edu), University Relations, Westcott Room 216 (MC 1350).

To comply with new IRS regulations, if you choose to contribute by payroll deduction, you must retain a copy of this pledge form in addition to your pay stub or W-2 Form to document your gift to UWBB, FIN #59-6011150. No goods or services have been given, in whole or part, for this contribution. Giving is a personal decision. United Way of the Big Bend has a strong policy against coercion. Whether a person gives to UWBB and how much the person chooses to give is up to the individual. Giving voluntarily is fundamental to the United Way concept.
